WYOMING IS STIRRED UP. UNEXPECTED CROWDS TO HEAR

GOV. ROOSEVELT SPEAK.

Republican State Committee Now Enthusiastic Over the Outlook in This Campaign -Prosperity in the State-Gov. Roose-veit's Statement of the Financial Issue. CHEYENNE, Wyo., Sept. 24.—The McKinley campaign has been carried through Carbon, Albany and Laramie counties of the great State of Wyoming to-day by Gov. Roosevelt. Wyoming was never very much of a silver state. It succumbed to the bad example, so its statesmen say, of the States which border Protection has taught Wyoming a whole of things in the last four years. For the fact that Wyoming coal has replaced British bia coal in the smelters and the factories of Montana, Utah and Colorado and the packing houses of Nebraska; for the price of ing wool that has risen steadily in the face of a dull market; for a steady market for Wyoming beef and mutton among people who can afford to eat a-plenty; for steady employment on the railroads of thousands of men who cannot lay the tracks fast enough to carry the increased loads of material evidence between East and West-for all these things Wyoming praises the name of McKinley. The windows of the stores of her towns are hung with his portrait. Every time a speaker in a meeting mentions his name the hall rings with such cheers as are seldom heard, except when the Most of the meetings have been in towns where railroad men make up most of the audiences. Some of them, like Rawlins and Larande and Chevenne, are towns in which cattle men have their headquarters. There were lots of cattlemen around, but not as many as there would have been if the meetings had been held a few weeks ago, before the fall round-Cattle and sheep men have had to come in for hundreds of miles around to attend some of the meetings. is part of the Republican problem in the State this year to make sure of the railroad The whole vote of the State is about The Democratic majority in 1896 was but a few hundred. In 1894, Richards, Repub-hean, carried the State by 1,394. There are enough railroad graders employed along the lines of the Union Pacific Railroad alone to enough railroad graders employed along the lines of the Union Pacific Railroad alone to swing the State to one party or the other. After seeing the way these men acted to-day when the doctrines of the Republican party were preached to them in the President's name by Roosevelt and his friends, the managers of the Republican organization of the State, who were almost all of them on the train, said that they were willing to bet all they had, down to the last clip of their last sheep, that Bryan will not carry Wyoming, and that the Legislature will be Republican. The impressions they have gathered from watching the railroad men have simply confirmed the lideas they got yesterday when they saw the number of people who came to the Evanston, Green River and Rock Spring meetings.

In a State whose whole voting population would not by any means overcrowd Madison Square Garden a meeting of twenty voters is one that the politicians regard with the utmost respect and concern. It is no uncommon thing to send speakers from State headquarters 100 miles from the railroad to address a gathering of from twenty to thirty men in a crossroads from twenty to thirty men in a crossroads hoolhouse. Such meetings as those along the route of the Roosevelt special for the last we days have never been known in the State fore. "Four years ago President McKinley said at if he was elected, under the gold standard did protective tariff, the general condition of lairs in this country would improve, and that e condition of most of the people in this country would improve at the same time. You seted him on that promise. His performation has squared with that promise to elast degree. We ask your support now for resident McKinley because he stands on a attorm that squarely declares for the gold andard and the protective tariff as did the attorm of four years ago, and because we elieve that only by that carrying out of the omise of that platform can the present prosertity of the country be maintained and ineased."

as though they had been but a few hundred feet from the train.

A member of the First California Volunteers came smashing through the audience as the train drew out of Medicine Bow, knocking folks right and left. High in the air he held a carar-shaped package to Roosevelt. It was tightly wrapped in gold foil.

"I got that in Manila," shouted the soldier, as the train rolled away and left him nearly breathless. "I have been saving it for you ever since I heard you were coming out here."

The Governor could only wave his hat in dis-nt acknowledgment. He never smokes him-if, so he called Col. Guild and John Proctor self, so he called Col. Guild and John Proctor clarke to him and told them that the one who made the best speech at Cheyenne to-night should have the cigars. The three have a very thorough system of covering the issues of the campaign has been the admiration of the Western politicians. When Col. Roosevelt talks against the "imperialism and militarism" bogevs, Mr. Clark attacks Mr. Bryan's record as a political prophet and prescriber of fake panaceas and Col. Guild talks tariff and its effects on the products of the country and on the wages of the workers where the meeting is being held.

Laramie turned out so many people that two halls had to be used to hold them. Col. Guild rather carried off the honors by touching up Mr. Bryan's record as an enemy to the sheep raisers. He quoted the Democratic candidate's speech in which he said that he favored free wool and did not care whether the sheep man wanted protection or whether he did not. Col. Guild backed this up with an interview with Bryan a few months ago in which he said that he stood by every word he had ever said for free wool.

CROKER ORDERS OUT TAMMANY. Wants 80,000 Men to Attend the Bryan

Demonstration on Oct. 16. The Hon. Richard Croker, Tammany's chieftain, and the grand master spirit of the Democracy of the State of New York, proposes to make the last stand for Bryan when the Nebraska statesman arrives in New York city to attend on Oct. 16 Mr. Croker's great demonstration in Madison Square Garden, Mr. Croker is not a man to let things drift. He is expert in details. He is working day and night to make this demonstration in Madison Square Garden the finest of his career. He understands fully that it has devolved upon him to carry the State of New York for Bryan and Stanchfield or lose it. He is perfectly well aware that the Democrats of the United States recognize him now as the Democratio leader of the Empire State.

Mr. Croker was at the Hoffman House yesterday. Chairman Frank Campbell of the Democratic State Committee and Chairman James K. McGuire of the State Executive Committee were out of town, but Mr. Croker was on guard. He lives at the Democratic Club. He goes to bed early and gets up early. He leaving no stone unturned to make this demonstration for Byyan in Madison Square Garden a triumphant success. Four years ago when Bryan came here the audience melted away. He read his speech. There was not the trained claque necessary to support a successful political demonstration. Mr. Croker is determined that not a man who attends the Bryan meeting in Madison Square Garden this year shall leave it until Mr. Bryan has said the last word. Madison Square Garden will hold comfortably 12,167 persons. Mr. Croker has notified all the Tammany leaders, Assembly and district, that they must produce an audience on the evening named that will be considered marvellous. In a word, Mr. Croker intends to have 50,000 men inside and outside of the Madison Square Garden at the time that Bryan speaks. Mr. Croker insists that this shall be done for its possible effect on other States.

Mr. Croker insists that Mr. Bryan must remain in the State of New York seven days. He has had a number of talks with ex-Gov. William J. Stone of Missouri, and Senator James K. Jones, chairman of the Democratio National Committee on this subject.

District Attorney Kellogg of Wayne County While Acting as a Republican Writes Letter to His Cousin Declaring for Bryan.

LYONS, N. Y., Sept. 24.-District Attorney Edward H. Kellogg has been placed in a most embarrassing position through attempting to carry water politically on both shoulders. Mr. Kellogg lives in Wolcott and has been supposedly a Republican. He is completing his second term as District Attorney and is a darkhorse candidate for a third term. He was known to have contracted views on expansion, but always maintained that he was a Republican and would vote the ticket. He was elected delegate to the Republican District Convention last month, attended the convention and voted to indorse the administrations of President McKinley and Gov. Roosevelt. The following day he attended the Republican Senatorial Convention that renominated Senator John Raines, acting as secretary of the convention, and again voted for resolutions indorsing both national and State administra-

District Convention, ne wrote a letter to Charles H. Kellogs, a coustn residing at Russell, Kan., in which he expressed what he said were his real sentiments. This letter his cousin, a Bryanite, had published in the Russell (Kan.) Reformer of Sept. 7. The editor adorned the letter with seare heads and wrote an introduction, saying that the letter was interesting: "First, because it gives an insight to the change of sentiment that had taken place all over the East; second, because as a New Yorker he (Kellogg) gives his estimation of the Republican Vice-Presidential candidate, and, third, it shows what some political opponents think of Mr. Bryan and his Indianapolis speech." Omitting the purely personal matter, District Attorney Kellogg's letter said.

"Well, regarding national politics. The issues are now clearly drawn. The Republican party has listened to the jingoes and the capitalists who are willing to commit murder and criminal aggression that they may exploit the Philippine Islands, Porto Rico (and Cuba I believe), and taken the position I feared it would take and nominated a man for Irresident whom I believe is either a man of putty or a scoundrel, and a man for Vice-President who is an aristocrat and an unsafe crank with a chip always on his shoulder. They have indorsed the villainous policy of Hanna, Platt & Co., which repudiates the most sacred doctrines of the Immortal Declaration and the Constitution, and substitutes lingoism and mere flag worship for patriotism.

that Richard Croker at first thought of hanging in front of the United States Sub-Treasury swung out yesterday at noon. Free silver was forgotten when it was prepared. Portraits of Bryan and Stevenson are prominent. In addition there are these sentiments, the two last credited definitely to Bryan, whose name, however, is not added to the first quotation: "Imperialism menaces liberty, oppresses labor, eyer, is not added to the first quotation: "Imperialism menaces liberty, oppresses labor, makes subjects, not citizens." The others are: "We want no colonies under the American flag; we want no President-Emperor nor Imperial President."

"I would not sell one American for all the trade of the Orient."

CROKER AND BRYAN'S CABINET. "One of Hanna's Nightmares," Says the Tam-

Senator Hanna was quoted in a me newspaper yesterday as having said in Clevenewspaper yesterday as having said in Cleveland that Bryan had promised at least one, and possibly two, Cabinet places to Richard Croker in the event of his election. Mr. Croker denied the story with some heat "That statement is only another of Hanna's nightmares," he said. "He has been making a lot of crazy talk lately, and the statement that Bryan has promised abinet places to me is the craziest that has come from him. It is sheer rot and nonsense. The Democratic candidate doesn't have to go around selling Cabinet places for votes. The Republicans do that."

BRYAN IN CHICAGO.

In Conference With Democratic Leaders in Regard to Plans for the Campaign. CHICAGO, Sept. 24.-William J. Bryan came to Chicago early to-day to attend an important conference of Democratic leaders, at which the present condition of the campaign in all the doubtful States was thoroughly canvassed, and plans laid for the final month of fight. Big men of the party all over the country present. The train on which

Democratic candidate for the Presidency left his home city of Lincoln at 6 o'clock last night was due in the Union Depot at 9:30 o'clock this morning, and Col. John I. Martin, sergeant-at arms of the Democratic National Committee. was early on hand with a carriage to meet Bryan. But the train steamed into the station

Bryan. But the train steamed into the station nearly an hour and a half late and Bryan hurried through the crowd, which watched him eagerly though sliently, and, jumping into the waiting hack, was rushed at top speed to the Auditorium. Here the other leaders, who had been summoned from many States, were already gathered in Senator Jones's private office.

Ex-Gov. Stone of Missouri, vice-chairman of the Democratic National Committee, had arrived from New York early this morning, as had also National Committeeman Campau from Detroit, Benjamin F. Shively from South Bend, National Committeeman T. D. O'Brien from St. Paul, Col. Moses Wetmore from St. Louis, Congressman Shafroth from Denver and James Hamilton Lewis from the State of Washington. Chairman Jones and Secretary Walsh of the National Committee and Vice-Chairman Johnson of the Executive Committee also participated in the conference.

For almost the first time during the campaign Bryan showed an aversion to being interviewed. He said:

Bryan showed an aversion to being interviewed. He said:

"I came to Chicago for the especial purpose of having a talk with the members of the National Committee, and I expect to return home to-night. I thought it best to visit Chicago for the conference now, because I happen to have three days at my disposal just now, and when I come through here on Oct. 4 I shall probably be so rushed for time that I wouldn't be able to attend such a conference. The agitation of the trust question is meeting with great success. It is something that appeals to every workingman. As to Mr. Hanna's assertions concerning me I have nothing to say. The public undoubtedly understand the situation."

Mr. Bryan refused to say anything regarding Senator Stewart's attacks upon him. At the conclusion of the conference it was announced that Bryan would devote five days to a tour of New York early in October and spend the remaining time in Ohio, Indiana and Illinois. The committee professes to believe those States may be swung into the Democratic column.

Mr. Bryan's dates in New York will be Oct.

Mr. Bryan's dates in New York will be Oct. 16, 17, 18, 19 and 20.

HUNGARIANS ON THE COAL STRIKE. Circular Sent Over the State by the Austro-

The Austro-Hungarian Republican League, with headquarters at 126 Second avenue, is doing good work for the Republican national ticket and daily increasing its own member-Dr. E. Makk, the President of the ship. league, reports that his countrymen are taking a great interest in this election because they realize that their own welfare demands the success of the Republican ticket. Marcus Braun, the chairman of the Executive Committee of the league sent yesterday to most of his countrymen in this State two statements published in German Slovak, Bohemian and Yiddish. They compare the prosperity the past four years with the hard times of the preceding four under Democratic rule, and appeal to Hungarians not to be misled by appeal to Hungarians not to be misled by lying statements of Democratic labor agitators in regard to the coal strike. They say:
"Compare the period of prosperity of labor between isse and 1900 with the four years immediately preceding the election of 1852. The Democrats then, as they are doing now, were using the same familiar lying arguments and the same old promises. When the prosperity they promised did not set in they blamed their predecessors in office and cited the occurrence of unforeseen events to account for the utter failure of their promises. Every Austro-Hungarian should help to demonstrate this fall that a campaign of lies, of slander and of promises that cannot be fulfilled will not misguide an intelligent electorate.

"In conclusion we would say to our fellow-In conclusion we would say to our fellow-countrymen, as well as to all those engaged in the strike, that it is not our object to dissuade them from their set purpose of bettering their condition, but that we would have them all understand the object of this strike. It is our great desire to save them from the error into which Democratic agitators of the Bryan-Populist type would lead them. Upon close scrutiny they would ascertain that the only object those would-be philanthropists have is to exploit the labor vote to the last extreme for their selfish ends.

THREATEN TO ROTTEN-EGG BRYAN. Nebraska City People Aroused by the Attack on Their Starch Industry.

LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 24.-Mr. Bryan will probably receive an unusual greeting if he keeps his engagement for Wednesday evening at Nebraska City, the home of ex-Secretary of Agriculture J. Sterling Morton. The town has a starch factory, now a part of the Starch Trust, and it is the chief industry of the place. Attorney-General Smyth began suit last week to declare the company a trust and bar it from Nebraska. The factory was owned by the Mortons and they are still interested in it. Mortons and they are still interested in it. They say that if the suit is pushed they will accept an offer from Kansas City and move the factory there. Every man and woman in the town is aroused, and at an indignation meeting resolutions were passed denouncing the action of the Attorney-General, as begun for the purpose of destroying the industry simply out of revenge for the bitter and relentless hostility of the Morton family to Bryanism, and demanding that the action be dismissed.

Mr. Bryan has sent word that he is going to Mr. Bryan has sent word that he is going talk on trusts exclusively and that he is going where the disease can be found. He will be accompanied by the Attorney-General, who will make a speech of explanation. Letters were received in the city to-day warning both gentlemen to keep away, as many threats were made of doing all sorts of things to them, the least of which was rotten-egging them. A special train will be run from Lincoln and if any trouble is begun there will be defenders on hand.

MID-ROAD POPULISTS WIN.

Get the Right to Use That Name on the Official Ballot in Nebraska.

LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 24.- The Mid-Road Populists won a decisive victory in court to-day, when a decision was handed down upholding their right to go on the official ballot as "Poputheir right to go on the official ballot as "Populists." The Populists in Nebraska are officially known as the People's Independent Party, and they denied the right of the Mid-Roaders to use the name Populists, because the other party was generally known by that title, and the voters would be deceived if the Mid-Roaders had the right to use it. The Court upholds the claim of the Mid-Roaders. The matter is of great importance, as it may add several thousand votes that the Fusionists cannot spare to the Mid-Road contingent, through the ignorance of voters.

BRYAN A TRAITOR, HE SAYS. Senator Stewart Cites the Treason Statute

Which He Has Violated. CHICAGO, Sept. 24.—Senator Stewart, who was once a supporter of Bryan, applied the word "traitor" to the Democratic Presidential candidate in his noonday speech on Saturday. To-day he not only declared that he meant it, but quoted acts of Congress to make Bryan appear guilty of violating the law making treason a felony. He said that the technical difficulties in the way of proving his charge are son a felony. He said that the technical difficulties in the way of proving his charge are so great that he does not believe Col. Bryan could be successfully prosecuted in a trial court, but that the people of the United States should adjudge him guilty by applying as a penalty part of the punishment provided by the Treason statute—that he shall "be incapable of holding any office under the United States."

"I consider Mr. Bryan as much an enemy of his country as Aaron Burr or Jefferson Davis, said the Senator to-day. "I publicly accuse him of the violation of the following act: Section 5.34, Revised Statutes of the United State: 'Every person who incites, sets on foot, assists, or engages in any rebellion or insurrection against the authority of the United States, or the laws thereof, or gives aid and comfort thereto, shall be punished by imprisonment of not more than ten years, or by a fine of not more than ten years, or by a fine of not more than ten years, or by a fine of not more than ten years, or by a fine of not more than ten years, or by a fine of not more than ten years, or by a fine of not more than ten years, or by a fine of not more than ten years, or by a fine of not more than ten years, or by a fine of not more than statute was enacted as measure against such persons as Vallandigham and other Copperheads, who, in 1864, proposed that the Federal Government should compromise with the Southern rebels. Then, as now, the small successes of the Confederacy were cited as reasons why the war for the preservation of the Union should be abandoned. In the same way the argument is now presented by Mr. Bryan that the war to establish order in the Philippines is hopeless and should also be abandoned.

"I do not think it necessary to defeat his ambition to become the President."

M'KINLEY SURE OF INDIANA.

The Republican Poll Indicates a Larger Plurality for Him Than in 1896. INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 24.—The final poll of the State, taken under the direction of the Republican State Central Committee, has been completed, and full returns from all the counties are now in the hands of the chairman. The poll shows that the plurality for President McKinley this year will be larger than that of four years ago, and that the total vote will be about 5 per cent. greater.

While the members of the committee refuse to go into details or to specify in what counties the increase is shown, it is known that the poll found fewer anti-imperialistic Republicans than were expected, and that it found more Democrats who will support the Republican candidates than the poll of four years ago. While it is not expected that the Republicans will get proportionately more of the increased vote than the other parties, their plurality will be larger because of the presence of the Populistic national ticket and the Social Democratic State and national tickets. Both of these parties will draw from the Democrats and lessen the vote of Bryan as compared with four years

Mr. McKinley's attitude on all of the great questions that have come up for his consideration has, in my opinon, been governed by conservatism and wisdom. There can be no question to my mind that the Republican party is the only one that fully knows how to conduct the affairs of the country for its real prosperity. Acting under that belief I have identified myself with the McKinley and Rooseyelt League and will devote belief I have identified myself with the McKin-ley and Roosevelt League and will devote the very little time that I can get away from my business to progressing the fight against Bryanism. A very high officer of the Government said that the intention was to send the American forces out of China and not merely out of Pekin. The order to Gen. Chaffee will be signed for transmission by Lieut.-Gen. Miles, the Acting Secretary of War, as soon as he is authorized to de so by Secretary Root, and it is evident that the authorities here have reason to believe that this authorization will come to-morrow or the following day.

Present plans contemplate the retention in Pekin of only about fourteen hundred men, including a regiment of infantry, a battery of artillery and a squadron of four troops of cavalry. All the marines will be sent o Cavité. If the several commands to be retained as a legation guard were full, the force to remain in Pekin would consist of about nineteen hundred men, but disease and casualties in action have depleted the ranks of the American troops, and it is estimated here that the regiment of infantry, the battery of artillery and the squadron of cavalry will be 500 short when those fitted for active service are assigned to the duty of guarding the American legation property. It is now freely admitted by officials that the order of withdrawal from Pekin has been definitely determined on, and will not be revoked or modified unless there should be some radical change in the situation in the next day or two Minister Conger is to remain in Pekin and will be designated as one of the American plenipotentiaries to negotiate with China and the ent of the Powers for a satisfactory recent troubles. Mr. Rockhill, the President's Special Commissioner to China, will probably be another of the American delegates, but beyond his name and Mr. Conger's no others are suggested. One high officer of the Government said to-day that he regarded it as exceedingly unlikely that Judge William R Day, former Secretary of State, would be designated as a member of the American Commission as has been suggested. While very reticent about the character of the negotiations now going on and chary of predicting the outcome officials concerned in the exchanges with the Powers give the impression that they are exceedingly hopeful that there will be a harmonious agreement before long between the nations interested. They maintain that there is no radical difference of opinion between the United States and the nations that desire the punishment of the leaders of the anti-foreign uprising as a condition precedent to peace negotiations. This Government has announced to the other Powers that it desires the punishment of the leaders, but is willing to give China the opportunity of taking that action. Germany and the nations that support her plan want the Powers to mete out the punishment One officer of the Government said to-day that patience and common-sense would bring about harmony, and he expressed confidence that there would be no trouble between the Powers. concerned in settling the Chinese question called at the State Department to-day, and it is expected that no new move will be made by this Government until the several nations

None of the representatives of the Powers have given their views on the attitude of the United States as demonstrated in the correspondence made public on Saturday. Dr David J. Hill, the acting Secretary of State, did not appear at his office to-day, and it was generally understood at the Department that he was at home engaged in the preparation of the instructions to be transmitted to Minister Conger for his guidance in arranging with the Chinese plenipotentiaries the preliminaries of the conference to be held to arrange a final settlement. These instructions liminaries of the conference to be held to arrange a final settlement. These instructions will be merely tentative, as there has been no agreement on the part of all the Powers to hold such a conference at this time

Mr. Conger will, it is understood, be directed to confer with Li Hung Chang and Prince Ching as to the general subjects to be considered by the conferrees and to ascertain their views in regard to China's disposition in the negotiations. The attitude of Germany may interfere with a satisfactory outcome of the arrangements which the Government looks to Mr. Conger to make, but it is believed in official quarters here that the Berlin Government will be willing to calmly discuss any reasonable propositions for compromising its desire to have the leaders of the anti-foreign movement punished by the Powers before negotiations are begun. This Government has no reason to believe the reports from abroad that Russia and France are willing to accede to Germany's condition precedent. On the contrary all the information in the possession of the Government tends to show that these two nations are in accord with the American plan of giving the Chinese Government the opportunity of punishing the malefactors and are willing to begin negotiations for peace without waiting for that end to be attained.

Government officials do not attemppt to conceal the fact that the announcement of orders to heavily augment the American fleet on the Asiatic station was intended as notice to the world that the United States intends to maintain its interest in the settlement of the Chinese question and proposes to assert its rights in China. A gratifying compliance with the Navy Department's orders has been shown by the departure of the gunboat Wilmington yesterday from Pelmira for Montevideo, whence she will sail for China by the Mediterranean route immediately after coaling, and the arrival at the Brooklyn Navy Yard to-day from Newport of the battleship Kentucky, to be fitted for her long cruiss to the East. waters as soon as they have coaled, and the cruiser Atlanta, which goes to take the Wilmington's place on the east coast of South America, is practically ready to sail. The Kentucky will be dry docked at the Brooklyn yard, the Dorothea at League Island, the Annapolis at Norfolk and the Vicksburg at Boston. When these ships and the Wilmington and the Albany reach the Asiatic station, Admiral Remey will have a fleet of more than thirty vessels. Secretary Long said this evening that the disposition of this force would be left to Admiral Remey. It will be necessary to retain some ships in the Philippines, but it is believed that Admiral Remey will assign most of the larger vessels to Chinese waters. When this big fleet has been assembled on the Asiatic station, Admiral Remey will have six armored vessels and three protected cruisers in his command, in addition to a host of smaller ships. Great Britain has in Asiatic waters six armorelads, and thirty-nine other vessels; Russia, eight armorelads and target and the protected cruisers was a support of the command of the command that waters six armorelads and thirty-two other vessels; Russia, eight armorelads and twenty Japan seven armorelads and thirty-two other vessels; Russia, eight armorelads and twenty other vessels; Germany, five armorelads and twenty-one other vessels; France, two armorelads and twenty other vessels; Italy, two armorelads and five other vessels; Austria, two armorelads and three other vessels; Holland, one armorelad and two other vessels, and Portugal one gunboat.

ARIZONA REPUBLICANS NOMINATE. Gov. Murphy Named for Delegate to Congres

"Statehood" the Campaign Slogan. PHIENIX. Ariz., Sept. 24.—Gov. N. O. Murphy was nominated to-day by the Republican Terwas nominated to-day by the Republican Territorial Convention for delegate to Congress, an office held by him before. The only other name presented to the convention was that of Capt. George D. Christy who received fifty-one votes to Murphy's ninety-six.

In his speech of acceptance Gov. Murphy stated his belief that the election of a Republican in Arizona this fall will mean the admission of Arizona to Statehood. The slogan of the party in the canvass will be "Statehood." The Democracy is split into two parties with two candidates and Republican victory is practically assured.

Mr. Cummings expects to speak in the principal cities and towns of the State and will remain in that part of the country nearly all the time until election day.

TEXAS STORM RELIEF FUNDS. Well Dressed Stranger Gave $100 but Declined to Tell His Name.

A well-dressed stranger called twice yesterday at the office of President James Stillman of the National City Bank. He declined to give his name or state his business. On his second call he saw Mr. Stillman and, after asking him if he was the Treasurer of the committee appointed by the Chamber of Commerce for the relief of the Galveston sufferers and being assured by Mr. Stillman that such was the fact, he pulled from his pocket a $100 silver certificate which he said he would like to have go into the fund. He again refused to disclose his identity, notwithstanding Mr Stillman's invitation to do so, and left as he

HOGG WANTS JONES REMOVED. He Thinks ex-Gov. Stone Is Better Fitted to Run the Bryan Campaign. AUSTIN, Tex., Sept. 24 .- The conference that is to take place in Chicago between Col. William J. Bryan, Chairman J. K. Jones, former Governor J. Bryan, Chairman J. K. Jones, former Governor Villiam J. Stone of Missouri, who has charge of the campaign in the East, and possibly other prominent members of the party, will be a very interesting affair if the report which leaked out here to-day concerning it is true, and it emanates from high Democratic authority that is worthy of credence. It has been known for many months that Hogg is bitterly opposed to Chairman Jones as manager of the national cammany months that Hogg is bitterly opposed to Chairman Jones as manager of the national campaign and his object in attending the Chicago conference is to make a fight against Jones continuing in that capacity. Hogg attends the conference at the special invitation of Bryan, who, it is said, fully agrees with Hogg as to the advisability of removing Jones from his present place. Hogg said prior to his departure that he believed Stone should he placed in charge of the campaign and that he was far more entitled to that place than Jones. The latter's prominent connection with the round cotton bale trust is being urged against him throughout the South.

Congressman Batley's Wager on Bryan. LEXINGTON, Sept. 24.—The terms of the wager between H. L. Asher and Congressman Bailey were not correctly stated last night.
